TYPOGRAPHY

The typeface arial Bold is the preferred font to be used for all campaign elements, when the EU emblem is applied. The typeface roboto is a possible alternative. The serif typefaces must be avoided.

Roboto can be downloaded on google font website (<https://fonts.google.com/specimen/Roboto>). All the weights available, here just a few examples are shown.

ARIAL Bold

Roboto (google font)

Name of the programme

The name is spelled in full, in capital letters LEADER.

THE TAGLINE

The name can be followed by the tagline “Development led by local communities.” in smaller size. The alignment can be on the right, left or center. This tagline is available in all languages.

COLOUR

Suggested colours can be white and green but not exclusively.

When the title is displayed against a dark background, the text is white to improve visibility.

When the title is displayed against a light background, the text is dark green to improve visibility.

Visual identity of third parties on X

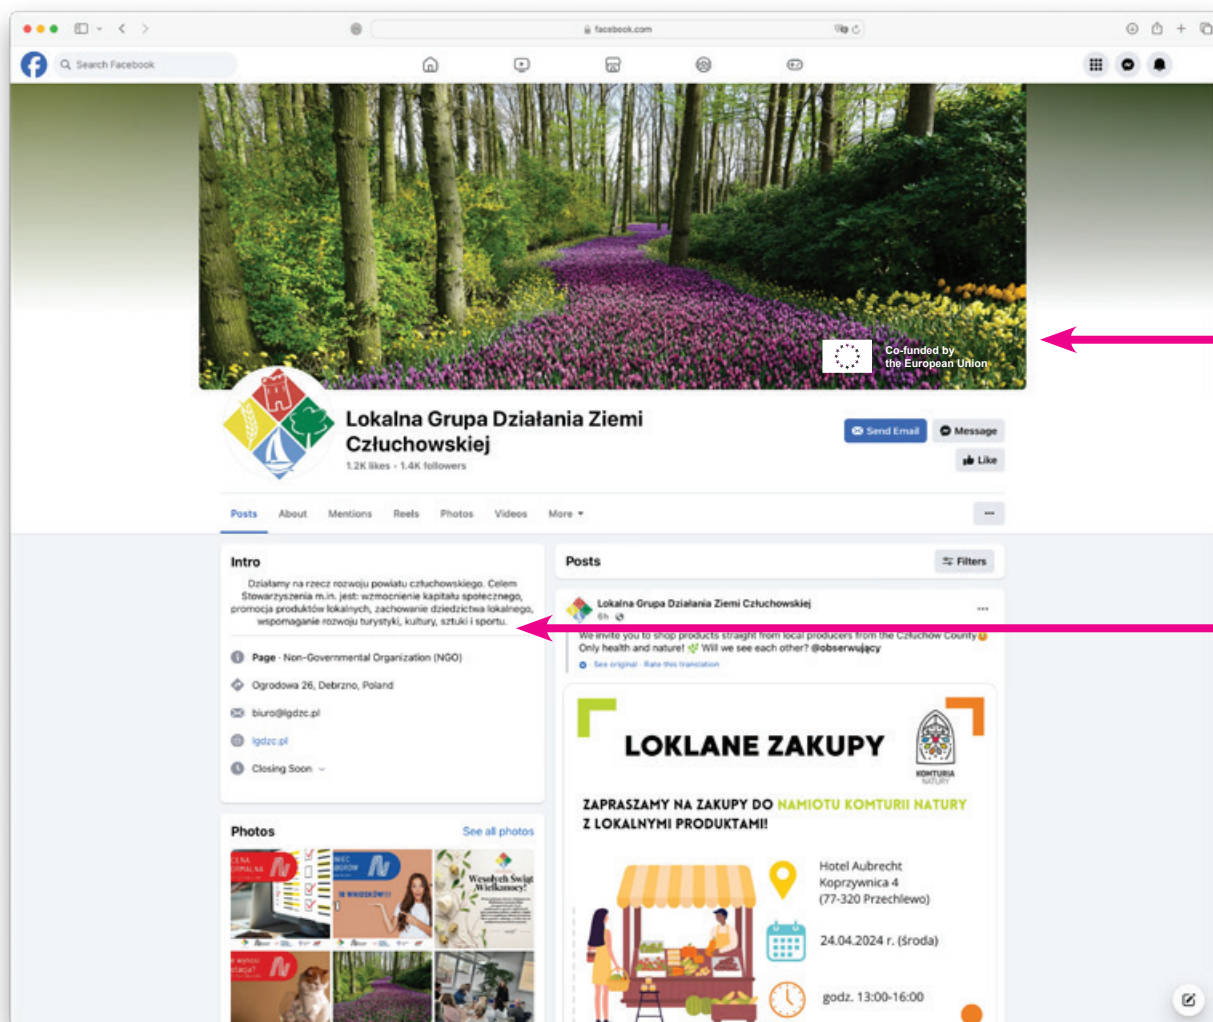

The screenshot shows the X profile page for 'Innovating Communities' (@innovating_ie). The profile banner features a colorful illustration of a village with houses, trees, and a wind turbine, with a small EU emblem and the text 'Co-funded by the European Union' at the bottom right. The profile bio reads: 'A project that empowers communities to tackle local challenges with Design Thinking training and mentoring. Register to submit Challenges & sign up for Courses!'. Below the bio, a pink box highlights the text: 'This is a project co-funded by the European Union. #LEADER - Development led by local communities'. The profile also shows location (Ireland), website (innovating.ie), and join date (November 2020). A pinned post from April 29, 2021, contains the text: 'As life begins again and the world rebuilds, working together has never been more important. Find out everything you need to know about Innovating Communities and our free #DesignThinking courses in this video. Be the change you want to see! Visit innovating.ie'. The post includes a video thumbnail with logos for the Department of Rural and Community Development, Leitrim company, SLIGO LEADER PARTNERSHIP, and Carlin County Local Development.

The EU emblem with “co-funded by the European Union” should be displayed at the bottom right in blue or in negative on the top banner of the social media network
