Project activities - How to work with certain problems, Also EIP-Agri falls a bit short because its hard to get approval in my country. Activities are for those who have the possibility and finance to travel - not the down to earth ordinary people. There is a bit too much Research involved, not that much market/sales orientation - therefore there is a lack of innovation. Would be great to work more with matchmaking, maybe see a project that did good in country A and find an organization in country B that get a contract/project on testing the same solution.
